DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Privacy Policy the following definitions shall have the following meanings:

"RichBit App" means, collectively, (i) the interactive application for the iOS and/or Android mobile platform and (ii) online web-version of same application accessible over the Internet, developed and managed by the Operator, available via the official Apple App Store and Google Google Play application stores, as well as online over the Internet via the website <http://richbit.website>.

"Personal Account" means the personalized section of the RichBit App closed for public access. Personal Account is accessed by entering authentication details on the RichBit App login page: login (username) and password (access code).

"User" means an individual that registered with the RichBit App as a User.

"Operator" means New Lion Studio Sp. z o.o., a legal entity duly organized and operating under the laws of the Republic of Poland, REGON: 361131202, NIP: 6772387686, address: ul. Krolewska 65A/1, Krakow, Poland, and its subsidiaries and affiliates.

"Your Data" means, collectively, your Personal Data and Automatically Collected Data.

INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

This Privacy Policy governs collection, processing, storing and use of your personally identifiable information (Personal Data) and Automatically Collected Data required for using and/or related to your use of the RichBit App as it is defined herein, which is developed, provided and operated by the Operator.

This Privacy Policy constitutes a legally binding agreement between the individual accepting this Privacy Policy ("You") and the Operator governing collection, processing, storing and use of Your Data required for you using and/or related to your use of the RichBit App, and its provisions may be enforced against you under applicable law. Please read and review this Privacy Policy before submitting any Personal Data to or with help of the RichBit App. By submitting any Personal Data to or with help of the RichBit App, or otherwise accessing or using the RichBit App, you acknowledge that you have read, understand and agree to be legally bound by this Privacy Policy without limitation.

This Privacy Policy is subject to change from time to time. Please review this Privacy Policy each time you access and/or use the RichBit App. By submitting any personal data to or with help of the RichBit App, or otherwise accessing or using the RichBit App, you shall be deemed as having accepted the most recent version of this Privacy Policy.

If you do not agree to the terms of collection, processing, storing and use of your Personal Data and/or Automatically Collected Data set forth in this Privacy Policy, you may not submit any Personal Data to or with help of the RichBit App, or otherwise access or use the RichBit App in any way.

COLLECTED AND PROCESSED DATA

In certain instances of use of the RichBit App listed below, you may be prompted by the RichBit App to provide information that may identify you (your "Personal Data"). Personal Data submitted by you through and with help of the RichBit App and collected from you via the RichBit App may include (but are not limited to) the following information:

- data contained in Your social network profile used to register with and login into the RichBit App, such as date of birth and place of residence;
- valid e-mail address;
- financial information such as the number of your credit or debit card if You use the RichBit App's paid functionality or otherwise make in-app purchases;
- home phone or mobile phone number; and
- other information from which You as an individual may be personally identified that may be required by the Operator and prompted for submitting from time to time via the RichBit App for the purposes of providing the RichBit App and its functionality to you.

You agree that the Operator may collect your Personal Data or Personal Data of third parties (for example, when you register a Personal Account for celebrities represented by you) in certain instances, including, but not limited to:

- when you register your Personal Account within the RichBit App;
- when you make purchases such as purchase of paid functionality or in-app currency in the RichBit App;

- when you contact the Operator or other Users;
- when you otherwise use the functionality of the RichBit App.

You agree that all Personal Data you provide via the RichBit App must and will be correct, truthful, current, and complete. Providing false information about your or third parties' identity is forbidden. If the Operator believes that the Personal Data you provide is not correct, current, or complete, or is false or misleading, the Operator has the right to refuse, suspend or terminate your access to the RichBit App or any of its resources and to suspend or delete your Personal Account at any time. This provision does not extend to instances when provision by you of Personal Data is not mandatory and you are free to provide any information (for example, when choosing the sex and nickname of your Avatar in the RichBit App).

You hereby agree that if you do not want the Operator and/or its designated Personal Data processing contractor (if and when applicable) to collect, process, store and/or use any of your Personal Data, you may not or will not be able to use certain functionality of the RichBit App, inter alia, paid functionality, or you may be denied registration of your Personal Profile in the RichBit App.

In addition to your Personal Data, when you download, access, and/or use the RichBit App the Operator and/or its designated third parties may automatically or passively collect, store and process certain information about you, your mobile device(s), and your Internet and RichBit App use using automatic data collection technologies, including but not limited to first- and third-party cookies, log files, web beacons, pixels and other similar technologies (the "Automatically Collected Data"). This information may include but is not limited to:

- the location of your mobile device;
- information about your Internet service provider;
- your device's operating system (including but not limited to information about its programming language and version) and device from which you access and use the RichBit App, including type and serial number of your mobile device (where applicable), your mobile device ID and call information;
- programming language, type and build of the Internet browser with which you access and use the RichBit App;
- Internet protocol address from which you access and use the RichBit App;
- mobile network, mobile operator, country codes and mobile operator prefixes;
- time zone;
- domain name and/or URL address from which you access the RichBit App;
- use and access log data;
- pages and areas of the RichBit App that you visited;
- RichBit App functionality you used;
- the date and time you accessed the RichBit App;
- information associated with your Apple iTunes or Google Play accounts or any other account used to download and access the RichBit App;
- information about the web pages you visit from the RichBit App or before you or after you use the RichBit App;

- information about your contacts list stored on your device for the purposes of sending invitations to use the RichBit App to your contacts and checking the use of the RichBit App by persons in your contacts list (i.e. checking that these persons are already using the RichBit App);
- information collected by third-party advertisements in the RichBit App, from third parties providing services to the Operator, and from third parties with whom the Operator advertises, including information from Operator's advertising partners; and
- other information about your device(s), web surfing preferences and interests that is not personally identifiable.

You hereby expressly agree that collection of such Automatically Collected Data does not constitute collection, use or other processing of your Personal Data. Notwithstanding this, you hereby grant the Operator, all of its affiliates, subsidiaries and designees, including but not limited to the Operator's designated Personal Data processing contractor your express consent for collection, use and other processing of all such Automatically Collected Data described above.

Any and all Automatically Collected Data collected and processed by the Operator and/or its designated third parties is used strictly for the purposes of improving the RichBit App, as well as for advertising and marketing purposes. You hereby agree that the Operator and/or its designated third parties are free to disclose any and all such Automatically Collected Data to third parties of their choice, including but not limited to third party advertisers and other parties.

SOCIAL NETWORK DATA AND GEOLOCATION

The RichBit App utilizes, among others, the technology of Personal Profiles registration via accounts in social networks. If you choose the option of registering your Personal Profile using your account in a social network but at the same time do not want the Operator to use the details of that account in that social network for Personal Profile registration purposes you may abstain from providing such details, however in this case you may be denied registration of your Personal Profile in the RichBit App.

The RichBit App utilizes GPS and other geolocation technologies to determine your current location in order to determine the country and city you are located within and display a location map with relevant content and advertisements within the RichBit App. If you do not want the Operator to use your location for these purposes, you should turn off the location services for the RichBit App in your mobile device settings and/or within the RichBit App. However, please note that since the RichBit App by design relies on geolocation technologies, if you turn location services off for the RichBit App, you may not be able to use certain or all functionality of the RichBit App.

PERSONAL DATA SHARING AND DISCLOSURE

Notwithstanding that the Operator, its affiliates, subsidiaries and designees, as well as its designated Personal Data processing contractor (if and when applicable) treat your Personal Data in a strictly confidential manner and do not and will not disclose it to third parties without your prior written consent or not in accordance with your consents granted under this Privacy Policy, the Operator and mentioned parties reserve the right to disclose your Personal Data and, where applicable, the Automatically Collected Data to third parties at their sole discretion and without obtaining your prior consent and without notification to you in the following circumstances and to the following parties:

- as may be required by law, such as to comply with a subpoena, or similar legal process, inter alia, if such disclosure of your Personal Data is required under governmental or legal requests for information, including but not limited to under the request of any governmental authorities, including but not limited to local and international police authorities and courts conducting investigations;
- to the Operator's services providers who work on Operator's behalf, do not have an independent use of the information disclosed to them, and have agreed to adhere to the data protection rules no less strict than set forth in this Privacy Policy;

- if the Operator is involved in a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of its assets;
- to Operator's advertising partners and third party advertising networks and analytics companies;
- if you are found to be, or the Operator has reasonable grounds to believe, that you are violating any legal agreement relating to your use of the RichBit App;
- if such disclosure of your Personal Data is required to fulfill Operator's obligations under applicable law;
- if such disclosure of your Personal Data is required to respond to an emergency; or
- when the Operator believes in good faith that such disclosure is necessary to protect the Operator's rights, protect your safety or the safety of other Users, or investigate fraud or abuse, or if such disclosure of your Personal Data is required otherwise to protect the rights, property or security of third parties, other users of the RichBit App or the general public in any jurisdiction whatsoever.

Further to the above, RichBit App utilizes third-party services that may collect information that can be used to identify you. Below are the links to privacy policies of these third-party service providers used by the RichBit App:

PERSONAL DATA OF CHILDREN AND TEENAGERS

The RichBit App and its certain informational content (such as mentions of tobacco and alcohol) are intended for use and viewing by adult, fully legally capable individuals only. The Operator and/or its designated Personal Data processing contractor (if applicable) do not knowingly or intentionally collect, process, store, use or disclose Personal Data (including persistent device identifiers) of children younger than 13 years of age.

To use the RichBit App and submit your Personal Data, you must be at least 13 (thirteen) years of age. Any use by you of the RichBit App shall be deemed to constitute your conformance with this requirement. In addition, if you provide by means and with help of the RichBit App Personal Data of third parties you must obtain the consent of that party to provision of his/her Personal Data by means of the RichBit App for the purposes set forth by this Privacy Policy, as well as, in cases where it may be requested by the Operator, provide confirmation from that third party with respect to conformance to the age requirements set forth by this clause of the Privacy Policy.

By accepting the terms of this Privacy Policy you agree that the Operator may introduce restrictions with respect to accessing adults-only content. In addition, the Operator reserves the right to report attempts of use of the RichBit App by the minors to the appropriate authorities.

If the Operator has learned or has sufficient grounds to believe that Personal Data is submitted by a child or a teenager instead of an adult, the Operator reserves the right to suspend the Personal Account through which the Personal Data was submitted and request provision of an e-mail address of the parent or legal guardian of the submitting person so that the Operator can notify the parent or legal guardian that their child or teen has provided Personal Data through the RichBit App and provide an opportunity for the parent or legal guardian to request the deletion of that Personal Data from the relevant records. The Operator will contact the parent or legal guardian at the e-mail address provided and the parent or legal guardian will have 48 hours from delivery of the e-mail to advise who exactly submitted the Personal Data. If the parent or legal guardian fails to reply to the query sent to the provided e-mail address, the Operator will assume that the parent or legal guardian has not consented to collection and processing of their child's or teenager's Personal Data, after which the related Personal Account will be immediately terminated and the Personal Data in question will be purged from Operator's and/or its designated Personal Data processing contractor's records.

PRINCIPLES OF PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

The Operator and/or its designated Personal Data processing contractor (when and if applicable) collect, process, store and use your Personal Data in accordance with the following general principles:

- your Personal Data is or will be at all times obtained solely from you and from you only, and not from any third party (with the express exception of cases when you provide Personal Data of third parties, for example, for the purposes of registration of a Personal Account for a celebrity you represent);
- your Personal Data are at all times collected, processed, stored and used lawfully;
- your Personal Data are collected, processed, stored and used only in accordance with the purposes of Personal Data processing outlined in this Privacy Policy and Your express consents granted under this Privacy Policy;
- your Personal Data is at all times collected, processed, stored and used separately from anonymous data that may be received from you in accordance with this Privacy Policy;
- your Personal Data is at all times treated confidentially and processed, if and where applicable, only by or with assistance of personnel working with Personal Data that have signed non-disclosure agreements;
- your Personal Data will not be disclosed or transferred to any third party without your express consent to such disclosure or transfer, with the exception of circumstances where such disclosure or transfer is performed under consents given by you in accordance with this Privacy Policy, may be required by government authorities, such as courts or law enforcement agencies, or under law, as discussed further in this Privacy Policy;
- your Personal Data is processed, stored and used only for the period set forth in this Privacy Policy;
- processing of your Personal Data by third parties, such as the Operator's designated Personal Data processing contractor (if and where applicable) will at all times be processed with the same level of confidentiality, data security and in strict accordance with the principles and purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy;
- the scope of collected Personal Data does not and will not exceed the scope of purposes for which the Personal Data is collected, processed, stored and used in accordance with this Privacy Policy; and
- you are entitled to access your Personal Data at any time, and your Personal Data may be changed or deleted at any time upon your request in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

PURPOSES OF DATA PROCESSING

The Operator and/or its designated Personal Data processing contractor (if and where applicable) collect, process, store and use Your Data (including Personal Data) solely for the following purposes:

- registering You as a User of the RichBit App by registering your Personal Account in the RichBit App;
- providing to You the RichBit App and its content, including paid functionality of the RichBit App;
- sending you and displaying for you promotional and advertising materials relating to new functionality and/or services of the RichBit App, as well as products and services of the Operator and/or its subsidiaries and affiliates and partners, including advertising partners, as well as sending you other information that you requested or agreed to receive;
- personalizing the content and features you access when you use the RichBit App;
- improving and upgrading the content and functionality of the RichBit App;
- tracking Users' demographics, interests, and behaviors;
- tracking the total number of RichBit App Users;
- performing statistical studies basing on the Personal Data provided by you and using information obtained from user surveys completed by you for improvement and enhancement of your user experience with the RichBit App, its functionality and services;
- sending you notifications relating to the RichBit App and your use of the RichBit App;
- using your Personal Data for Operator's internal business purposes directly relating to the RichBit App, including but not limited to measuring advertising and promotional effectiveness;
- record keeping and archival purposes;
- fraud and abuse detection and prevention;

YOUR CONSENTS TO PROCESSING AND DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL DATA; USE OF PERSONAL DATA BY THIRD PARTIES

You hereby expressly acknowledge and agree that you grant the Operator, its affiliates, subsidiaries, controlling and controlled companies and designees, as well as its designated personal data processing contractor(s) (if and where applicable) your consents granted under this Privacy Policy with respect to collection, processing, storing and use of your Personal Data by yourself, voluntarily and by your free will, in your own interests and consciously.

You hereby expressly consent to the collection, processing, storing and use of your Personal Data by the Operator by all means and for all purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy and under applicable law, including, but not limited to, this Section of the Privacy Policy, and disclosure of your Personal Data in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

The Operator may from time to time engage third parties to perform certain functions on behalf of the Operator, such as hosting (including but not limited to cloud and server hosting) and/or operating the RichBit App, receiving and processing payments made by you via the RichBit App, sending e-mail communications, carrying out user behavior analysis, creating and sending to you personalized advertising, and performing any other functions. You hereby grant your express consent to the Operator to share your Personal Data with such third parties in order for them to perform such functions and to disclose your Personal Data to such parties where and when required.

The Operator may from time to time require sharing your Personal Data with other entities affiliated with the Operator, such as (but not limited to) Operator's subsidiaries and controlling or controlled entities for internal business and operational purposes. You hereby grant your express consent to the Operator to share your Personal Data with such entities affiliated with the Operator and to disclose your Personal Data to such entities where and when required.

The Operator, where and when applicable or desirable, may engage third parties, such as the Operator's designated Personal Data processing contractor, to process your Personal Data on Operator's behalf. You hereby grant the Operator your express consent to share your Personal Data with such designated Personal Data processing contractor and to disclose your Personal Data to such contractor where and when required or desirable.

If and when applicable your Personal Data may be processed by Operator's designated Personal Data processing contractor located in a certain jurisdiction outside of your jurisdiction of domicile in which the privacy laws may not be as comprehensive as those in the country where you reside and/or are a citizen. You hereby grant your express consent to cross-border (overseas) transfer of your Personal Data to such third parties located in jurisdictions outside of your jurisdiction of domicile and to processing of your Personal Data by same.

In certain instances, your Personal Data may be processed by Operator to fulfill your payments made or received with help of the RichBit App, including but not limited to payments for paid functionality of the RichBit App ordered by you. You hereby grant your express consent to the Operator to process any Personal Data that may be received from you during such transactions, and share your Personal Data with third parties such as payment services providers and banks in order for them to be able to fulfill your payment requests.

ADVERTISING AND SURVEYS

The Operator, Operator's advertising partners or third party advertisers may use Your Data for sending you notifications and other informational and promotional materials about the new functionality and content available via the RichBit App or other services and products (including new services and products of the Operator or its affiliates), and the RichBit App may display online advertisements. You hereby grant your express consent to receive such informational and advertising materials and to use of Your Data for these purposes, and to use of Your Data for providing you personalized advertising. Your Data address will not be used for sending you unsolicited advertising messages ("spam").

The Operator may, from time to time, conduct RichBit App surveys with voluntary participation required to improve and enhance your user experience with the RichBit App, with its functionality and services. You hereby grant your express consent to receive offers of participating in such surveys. If and to the extent you participate in such surveys, you hereby grant the Operator your express consent to processing of your Personal Data that you may be required to submit when completing such surveys.

DATA SECURITY

The Operator and Operator's designated contractor performing Personal Data processing (when and if applicable) use commercially reasonable technical, organizational and administrative measures to ensure protection and security of your Personal Data. The RichBit App and the servers hosting the RichBit App, as well as servers of the Operator's designated contractor performing Personal Data processing (when and if applicable) utilize certain electronic security measures designed to protect against the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information under Operator's and/or Operator's designated contractor's performing Personal Data processing (when and if applicable) control, including Personal Data, which measures fully correspond to requirements set forth under applicable law and best practices. As an example, all Personal Data after its collection is by design irrevocably hashed for the purposes of prevention of its potential decryption in the case of a hacker attack. However, you acknowledge and agree that no electronic data transmission or storage of information can be guaranteed to be fully secure, and while the Operator and Operator's designated contractor performing Personal Data processing (when and if applicable) perform and will continue to perform the discussed measures to ensure protection and security of RichBit App-related network and systems and safety of your Personal Data, the Operator and Operator's designated contractor performing Personal Data processing (when and if applicable) cannot and do not guarantee that security measures implemented in the RichBit App will prevent third-party hackers or other malefactors from illegally obtaining information about you, including your Personal Data.

Please note that the Operator cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit via the RichBit App, including your financial transaction information. You hereby expressly acknowledge and agree that you use the RichBit App at your own risk.

COOKIE POLICY

The technologies used in relation to the RichBit App may include cookie files. A "cookie" is a small data file that can be sent to and placed on or in your computer's or mobile device's hard drive and/or memory, whichever is applicable, when you access and use the RichBit App. The Operator may deploy cookie files to collect, store, and sometimes track information for statistical purposes to improve the RichBit App and the functionality and services it offers, as well as to store user preferences, to record session information, to record user-specific information on what pages you access or visit, to record past activity in the RichBit App to provide improved functionality when you return to the RichBit App, to ensure that you are not repeatedly sent the same advertising or notifications, and to collect other information that you send or that may be required for maintenance, improvement and enhancement of the RichBit App. The Operator may also deploy "web beacons" and similar technology to assist with delivery of the cookie to your computer or mobile device. Besides cookie files that are only used during a session and deleted after your visit of the website ("Session Cookies"), we may use cookies in order to save user configurations and other information for a certain time period not exceeding 2 (Two) years ("Permanent Cookies"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, you may configure your browser settings in a way that it rejects cookies, only saves them for one session or deletes them prematurely. Please note that blocking or rejecting cookies on your computer or other device may prohibit you from accessing and/or using certain functionality or services available in the RichBit App. You hereby expressly consent to the Operator placing the cookies on your computer's or other computing or mobile device's memory for the purposes set forth in this Section, including but not limited to RichBit App maintenance and improvement, and accessing and using certain functionality and services of the RichBit App.

THIRD-PARTY WEBSITES AND COOKIES

The RichBit App may contain hyperlinks to other websites or other Internet resources that are not maintained by, or related to, the Operator or its affiliates. It is your responsibility to review the privacy policies of those websites. This Privacy Policy applies only to the RichBit App.

Advertisers and other third parties may also use their own cookies. The Operator does not control the use of such third party cookies and expressly, to the fullest extent allowed under applicable law, disclaims any and all responsibility for any information collected by third parties through use of such third party cookies.

TERM OF PROCESSING, UPDATING AND DELETING PERSONAL DATA

Your Personal Data is processed and stored by the Operator and/or its designated Personal Data processing contractor (when and if applicable) for the total period required for providing you access to the RichBit App and the ability to use the RichBit App, providing you with notifications and sending you promotional materials, and using your Personal Data for other purposes set forth in this Privacy Policy but for no longer than 1 (One) year as of termination of your use of the RichBit App for any reason, if you do not request the Personal Data to be deleted before the end of that term in accordance with this Section. If you decide to terminate your Personal Account within the RichBit App, the above term will apply to storage of your Your Data and Your Data (both Personal Data and Automatically Collected Data) will remain in Operator's archives for that period.

You can stop all collection of Your Data by the RichBit App by uninstalling the RichBit App. You may use the standard uninstall processes as may be available as part of your mobile device or via the mobile application marketplace or network. You can also request to opt-out via email privacy@richbit.life.

You are always entitled to request information about any of Your Data that the Operator has stored, as well as their origin and recipient and the purpose it was collected, stored and processed for. You have the right to request the Operator to update or delete your Personal Data by sending an e-mail to the following address: privacy@richbit.life. Your Personal Data will be updated or deleted, depending on your request, in 15 (Fifteen) business days as of receipt of your request. You may also send a request to fully delete your Personal Data in writing to the Operator's address indicated within the "Contacts" Section of this Privacy Policy. We are planning to add in future the option of automatic download of Personal Data and use statistics and information for Users.

The Operator is under no obligation to store your Personal Data indefinitely and hereby disclaims any liability arising out of, or related to, destruction of such Personal Data.

GOVERNING LAW; JURISDICTIONS

Except where prohibited by applicable law or provided otherwise herein, this Privacy Policy shall be governed by the laws of Republic of Poland. Accordingly, this Privacy Policy is intended to comply with applicable laws and regulations of the Republic of Poland and the European Union. You understand and agree that other countries may have laws, regulatory requirements and business practices regarding Personal Data that differ from those established in the Republic of Poland.

OVERSEAS DATA TRANSFER; STORING DATA IN CERTAIN JURISDICTIONS

The processing of Your Data generally takes place in the Republic of Poland. However, in the context of the Operator's business activities and in line with the purposes of the data processing set out in this Privacy Policy, the Operator and/or its designated Personal Data processing services provider may transfer Your Personal Data to third parties located outside of the Republic of Poland. These parties may be located in European Union and European Economic Area. However other parties may be located in any country worldwide. In particular, You agree that your Personal Data may be transmitted to any country in which the Operator is represented by affiliates, branches or other offices as well as to other countries in the European Union, European Economic Area, the United States of America, Canada, the countries of the A-PAC region and every other country where Operator's affiliates and/or service providers are located.

In addition to the above you agree that, if the laws of your jurisdiction establish the requirement for storing Personal Data of its citizens within the territory of that jurisdiction, the Operator must conform to that requirement and will store Your Personal Data on servers located within the territory of that jurisdiction.

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP

You will be deemed to have consented to the disclosure to, and use by, a subsequent owner or operator of the RichBit App, of any information about you, including your Personal Data provided to the Operator in accordance with this Privacy Policy, in case the Operator assigns its rights and obligations regarding such information in connection with a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or some of the Operator's assets, or in connection with a merger, acquisition or sale of all or some assets related to the RichBit App, to a subsequent owner or operator. In the event of such a merger, acquisition, or sale, your continued use of the RichBit App signifies your agreement to be legally bound by the privacy policy of the RichBit App's subsequent owner or operator, which policy may differ from this Privacy Policy. This provision shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding any termination of your use of the RichBit App.

CHANGES TO PRIVACY POLICY

To the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, the Operator reserves the right to modify, update, supplement, revise or otherwise change this Privacy Policy in order to comply with applicable new legislation and/or regulations and/or to improve the RichBit App, and to impose new or additional rules, policies, terms or conditions in relation to the RichBit App, collection, processing and storing Personal Data from time to time with or without notice to you. In addition, there may appear from time to time new, unanticipated uses of information collected through the RichBit App that were not previously governed by this Privacy Policy. The Operator may notify you of the amendments to this Privacy Policy by sending an email message to the email address provided during registration of your Personal Account and/or by posting the notice on the RichBit App. All amendments to this Privacy Policy will be effective immediately and incorporated into the Privacy Policy upon sending and/or posting of such notice. You are responsible for regularly reviewing this Privacy Policy. Your use of the RichBit App or any part thereof after any changes to this Privacy Policy are posted on the RichBit App or otherwise made available for review will be considered your acceptance of those changes and will constitute your agreement to be legally bound thereby. If you object to any such changes, your sole recourse will be to delete the RichBit App from your device thus terminating your Personal Account, and request immediate deletion of your Personal Data via the e-mail address provided in the "Contacts" section hereof.

CONTACTS

If you have any comments or questions about this Privacy Policy or data protection, or if you wish to access, request data portability, correct, block or delete your Personal Account or any of your Personal Data, or if you would like, at any time, to revoke your granted consents regarding the use of Your Data, please contact the Operator using the following contact details:
